

MAKTAB KAUZARIYYA - PORTAL & TEACHER SPECIFICATION

Generated on: 2026-08-21

1. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR MAKTAB TEACHERS

1. All classes must commence with Dua:

- "Allahumma inna nas'aluka 'ilman nafi'an, wa rizqan tayyiban, wa 'amalan mutaqabbalan."

- "Allahumma la sahla illa ma ja'altahu sahlan, wa anta taj'alul hazna idha shi'ta sahlan. Rabbi zidni 'ilma."

2. The Google Meet link must be shared in the class WhatsApp group daily, at least 15 minutes before the class starts (even if it is a recurring link).

3. Punctuality is mandatory; teachers must join classes strictly on time.

4. Class duration is exactly 1 hour. Saturday and Sunday are official holidays.

Scheduled class times must not be altered unnecessarily.

5. Cameras must be turned on during class. Lady teachers must instruct female students to ensure that no males are present in their study area during class.

6. To ensure high audio and communication clarity, teachers must sit in a quiet area with good network coverage and use a headset if possible.

7. Special attention must be given to slow learners. Teachers should find extra time on weekdays or organize special classes on Saturdays if needed.

8. Teachers must maintain regular communication with parents regarding their children's progress.

9. Google Sheets must be updated daily with high accuracy (specifically logging student/teacher leaves).

10. Activities must be assigned on Saturdays. Instruct students to take photos of their prayer charts and share them in the group, and verify them.

11. Avoid leaves as much as possible. In unavoidable circumstances, inform the supervisor and class group in advance.

12. If a class cannot be conducted at the scheduled time, it must be rescheduled for another suitable time on the same day.

13. Pray specifically for the students after every daily prayer.

14. Study and follow the specific teaching methodology provided at the beginning of each textbook.

15. Ensure that every student has a copy of the textbook (physical or PDF) at the start of the term.

16. Before starting a new lesson, revision of previous portions is mandatory.

17. Take classes daily covering all parts of the Diniyath textbook.

18. Ensure the current lesson is fully understood before moving to the next lesson.

19. Homework should be requested via WhatsApp twice a week, evaluated, and corrected with feedback.

20. Conduct a monthly test based on the portions covered. Inform students of dates in advance, and dedicate the 2 days prior to the test entirely to revision.

21. Submit a weekly report in the teachers' group every Saturday.

Teaching is an Amanah (trust) and a great responsibility. Let us fulfill it with sincerity and precision.

2. GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES FOR TAJWEED & HIFZ TEACHERS

1. Commencing classes with Dua is mandatory:

- "Allahumma-j'alil Qur'ana rabi'a qalbi, wa nura sadri, wa jala'a huzni, wa dhahaba hammi..."

2. Share the Google Meet link in the class group at least 15 minutes prior to session start.

3. Maintain strict punctuality.

4. Camera must be turned on during class. Lady teachers must ensure no males are near the female students during the session.

5. Do not change scheduled class times without valid reasons.

6. Provide constant encouragement and motivation to struggling students.

7. Class duration is typically 1 hour (minimum 45 minutes). Sunday is the official holiday.

8. Update parents regularly on learning progress.

9. Update progress in Google Sheets daily (log student leaves, teacher leaves, and Sunday off).

10. Inform the supervisor and group in advance if leave is required.

11. If a class is missed, reschedule it for another slot on the same day.

12. If a student has not joined at the scheduled time, call them immediately.

13. Cooperate with supervisors when they join classes once a week for evaluation.

14. Pray for the students after every Salah.

3. SUBJECT-SPECIFIC CURRICULUM GUIDELINES

A. TAJWEED CLASS (Beginners)

- Curriculum: Entirely based on the "Noorani Qaida" (28 Lessons).

- Goal: Enable students to recite the Holy Quran with correct articulation (Makhraj) and Tajweed rules.

- Class Flow:

* 05 Minutes: Dua, motivation, and casual talk.

* 10 Minutes: Revision of previous lessons.

* 40 Minutes: Main lesson delivery (visual demonstration of mouth movements, using charts).

- * 05 Minutes: Homework assignments and instructions.

- Target: Complete all 28 lessons.

B. NAZIRA CLASS (Quran Reading)

- Requirement: Personal copy of the Mus'haf for every student.

- Target: Complete 5 Juz with proper fluency and confidence. Passing an exam after 5 Juz is mandatory for Hifz entry.

- Class Flow:

- * 05 Minutes: Dua, motivation, and casual talk.

- * 10 Minutes: Revision of previous pages (especially if fluency is low).

- * 40 Minutes: Live reading with corrections and testing of Tajweed rules.

- * 05 Minutes: Homework (voice notes or live prep).

- Evaluation details: Focus on articulation purity (Sihhath), prolongation rules, stop/start rules (Waqf/I'ada), and proper Arabic rhythm.

C. INTERMEDIATE CLASS (Combined Tajweed & Nazira)

- Class Flow:

- * 02.5 Minutes: Dua & Motivation.

- * 10.0 Minutes: Revision of past lessons.

- * 25.0 Minutes: Tajweed (Noorani Qaida).

- * 20.0 Minutes: Nazira Reading.

- * 02.5 Minutes: Homework & Instructions.

D. HIFZ CLASS (Memorization)

- Entrance Rule: Only students who passed the Nazira 5 Juz exam are admitted.

- Structure (Three Daily Lessons):

1. New Lesson (Sabak): Commits new lines to memory. (Beginners: 1-4 lines; Intermediate: 5-7 lines; Advanced: 8-10 lines). Live via Google Meet.

2. Juz Lesson (Sabqi): Reciting the last 10 pages memorized. Live via Google Meet. (If missed, no new lesson is assigned next day).

3. Old Lesson (Manzil): 0.5 Juz daily sent via WhatsApp voice note. (If missed for 2 days, new lessons are blocked).

- Study Path: Core Surahs first (Sajdah, Yaseen, Mulk, Waqiah), then the last 5 Juz in reverse (30, 29, 28, 27, 26), then standard order from Juz 1 onwards.

- Exam: Comprehensive exam after completing each Juz before starting the next.

4. DIGITAL PORTAL SPECIFICATION & SCHEMA MAPPING

We can translate these curriculum guidelines into clean, robust features inside the Makthab Kauzariyya portal:

A. Database Adjustments (To support these workflows)

- Courses table: Differentiate by type ('Diniyath', 'Tajweed', 'Nazira', 'Hifz').
- Classes table: Type column ('group' vs 'individual') to accommodate group Diniyath classes and customized one-on-one Hifz/Nazira classes.
- Progress Logs table: Create fields for:
 - * Noorani Qaida Lesson Number (1-28)
 - * Nazira Juz & Page Number
 - * Hifz Sabak (lines logged), Sabqi (completed checklist), and Manzil (voice note status).

B. Teacher Dashboard & Progress Log

- Replace Google Sheets with a daily attendance & log form.
- Automated validation rules:
 - * If "Sabqi" is unchecked, lock the "New Sabak" input for the next day.
 - * If "Manzil" is flagged missing for 2 consecutive days, highlight the student in red and block new assignments.
 - * Auto-populate the daily Duas as clickable banners based on the class type.

C. Supervisor Portal

- Audit schedule generator: Automatically assigns class visits once a week.
- Leave approval system: Connects teacher leave requests directly to the supervisor's inbox for approval and reschedule checks.

D. Parents Portal

- Progress dashboard showing current milestone targets.
- Displays monthly exam grades and average memorization speed (days per Juz).